Arctic stakeholders, including EU and foreign policymakers, scientists, industry representatives, indigenous peoples and academics are gathering this morning in Brussels, for the annual Arctic Futures Symposium.

Thanks to the EU Committee of the Regions Jacques Delors Building, we are able to provide a live video stream of the event, from 9h00 on Thursday 4th. We are using #AF2012 and #ArcticFutures to discuss the Symposium on Twitter.

A storify feed of the event has been archieved and is available online.
