BE-POLAR CONFERENCE 2025: REGISTRATION AND CALL FOR ABSTRACTS OPEN!

© APECS Belgium, BELSPO, IPF

The event will feature plenary sessions setting the stage with cross-disciplinary and policy-relevant perspectives on polar research

There will be parallel thematic sessions on:

- Ice, Ocean and their Interactions
- Atmospheric Science
- Continental Cryosphere: Observations and Modelling (includes the biological sciences)
- Human Health, Socio-Economic and Geopolitical Aspects and Outreach

There will also be a dedicated poster session and best poster award for early-career researchers, a closing plenary on the future of Belgian polar science, an evening food truck, and ample networking opportunities!

A surprise cultural activity will close the day – featuring a live concert by a very special band: the Broes! This will be your chance to see their only Brussels concert this year for their latest album BELGICA, so don't miss it!,

Registrations are open from now until August 24th, 23:50 CEST. A participation fee of 20€ will be asked (meal and evening cultural activity included with participation fee).

Attendees are invited to submit an abstract to present their work either through oral presentations within these parallel sessions or via a poster, for which there will be a dedicated time slot at the end of the day. Abstracts must be submitted by June 30th, at 23:50 CEST.

For more information about the event and how to register, please visit the event website.

Only 130 places are available, so make sure to register today!

We look forward to seeing everyone in the wider Belgian polar research community there!

The BE-Polar Conference 2025 Committee: François Massonnet, David Docquier, Coraline Leseurre, Mieke Sterken, Marie Cavitte, Louise Delhaye.

This event is organized by the Belspo-funded research project RESIST, APECS-Belgium and the International Polar Foundation. It is supported by BELSPO, BNCA2R, and Usquare.brussels (VUB-ULB).
