The 13th edition of the Arctic Futures Symposium is rapidly approaching!

Following two years of online and hybrid events, this year's Symposium will return in person at the Residence Palace in Brussels, Belgium.

Between November 29th and 30th, the Symposium will bring together experts from different disciplines and parts of the Arctic, offering a platform for lively discussions on key topics chosen by Arctic stakeholders.

The topics for this year's Symposium will focus on:

- Evolving Arctic Governance
- Arctic Cooperation in Turbulent Geopolitical Climate
- The Evolving Role of Arctic Stakeholders
- Arctic Research Cooperation in the Current Geopolitical Climate
- Arctic Energy and Resource Security
- Arctic Innovation
- The Arctic as an Attractive Place to Live and Work

For more details about the symposium programme, speakers, and registration, please consult the Arctic Futures Symposium website.

Come join us!

This year registrations have been very successful, demonstrating people's increasing interest in the Arctic region.

If you didn't register to attend the symposium in person, you can still take part in these lively discussions by watching the event live on our youtube channel.

Please don't hesitate to contact us at events@polarfoundation.org if you have any questions about the event.
